

From Classroom to Career with BHP

Applications for Indigenous School Based Traineeships in Business Administration with BHP are now open.

BHP believes in supporting young Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people on their journey from the classroom to meaningful careers.

The Indigenous School Based Traineeships give secondary students a head start in their chosen career and provide a pathway to further employment and education. Trainees receive valuable on-the-job training and mentoring support by industry leaders.

Indigenous School Based Traineeship details

- Traineeships are based in BHP's Perth corporate office in the award-winning City Square tower
- Trainees undertake paid employment whilst gaining skills and experience in a workplace environment
- On successful completion, trainees will graduate with a Certificate II in Business

Eligibility

To be considered for an Indigenous School Based Traineeship, you must be:

- of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent;
- Commencing Year 11 in 2020; and
- Willing to work one day per week and some additional days during the school holidays for the duration of the traineeship.

Applications Close Friday, 28 June 2019
